Description

The Sabre Wireless Power Bank is a 5,000mAh inductive charger built for effortless, cable-free power on the go. Featuring Qi-equivalent wireless charging and built-in removable connector cables, it's the ultimate all-rounder for keeping your devices ready wherever you are. Simply place your compatible phone on the power bank's surface to start charging — no cords required. Available in sleek Black or White, the Sabre combines versatility with clean design. Equipped with 4 graduated LED indicators, it clearly shows the remaining charge level, while the removable built-in Type-C and combo Android/iOS cables offer extra flexibility for wired charging. The power bank can recharge most devices between 80% and 100%, and can itself be recharged up to 300 times, reaching full capacity in just 4–5 hours. Each unit includes a 12-month limited technology warranty for added peace of mind. Material: ABS case
